(All communications should be addressed to "THE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD.")

Treasury Department,

Office of the Light-House Board,

D

One inclosure. Washington, 1 June, 1894.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Treasury.

Sir:

The Light-House Board has the honor to state that under the authority granted 27 April '94, it invited offers by public advertisement to purchase the old material comprising the buildings at Thomas Point, Sandy Point, Greenbury Point and Clay Island, Md., and Smith Point, Va., light-stations, (discontinued).

A schedule of all the bids received is enclosed. Recommendation is made that the Board be authorized to accept the highest bid in each case, the money to be covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts. The following are the highest offers:

Thomas Wm. Spranklin, Baltimore, Md., for the materials at Sandy Point, Md., $75.

Theodore Corner, Annapolis, Md., for the materials at Greenbury Point, Md., $51.

Thomas W. Smith, Washington, D.C., for the material at

Thomas Point, Md., $25.05.

J. H. C. Johnson, Reedville, Va., for the material at Smith Point, Va., $15.

No bids were received for the material at Clay Island, Maryland.

Respectfully yours,

Chester Brown

Captain, Corps of Engineers, U.S.A.,
Engineer Secretary.
