Sir:

Refering to your letter of the 14 instant regarding the account L.L. Steele Collection Agency is collecting for J. A. Turner from me, I wish to say that your letter came back on the stage that had taken all my monthly payments to the Post Office. Steele's money was in the lot.

My wife had been in the city and I let my accounts wait until she came home. She handles all our household accounts.

Steele had my account closed at the Emporium, claiming it was a grocery bill. My wife went to their store and explained to them just how this rent account came about. They were surprised and said such accounts did not stop credit with them. They found my referenas were alright and alowed me to open my account with them again.
