SUBJECT: Mr. James McCloud.

REFERENCE: Your letter September 14, 1931.

Sir:

In reference to your letter of September 14, you are advised that James McCloud, who is 2nd Assistant Keeper at Libby Island Light Station has applied to this office for transfer to the 3rd Lighthouse District at some station in the state of Rhode Island. Mr. McCloud's application is on file for consideration in connection with such vacancies as may occur. As vacancies and changes in personnel of light stations in this District have been infrequent for many months, and there being no changes in prospect at the present time, it is of course impracticable to say when it may be possible to consider Mr. McCloud's application. It is also to be noted that there are very few light stations in the state of Rhode Island; however, should a vacancy occur, Mr. Mc Cloud's application will be considered.
