Sir

Treasury Department
Revenue Office Sept. 14th 1797.

I feel great comfort in the certainty that we shall have an Eclipse to the Cape cod house, and shall be glad to receive a drawing and description.

Gen.l Dearborn gives explanations of the several points in my letter to him, as you will perceive by the copy of his letter enclosed for your information.

I am, Sir,

Your most Obed.t Serv.t

Tench Coxe

Commiss.r of the Revenue

Benjamin Lincoln Esq.r

Treasury Department
Revenue Office
Sept 15th 1789

Benjamin Lincoln Esq.
Superintendent of Light houses
Boston
Massachusetts.