Treasury Department
Revenue Office April 24th 1815.

Sir

You will be pleased to cause the enclosed advertisement to be inserted in some of the Boston papers which have an extensive circulation in those districts where the Oil dealers and manufacturers reside.

When the period for receiving proposals at your office has elapsed, you will please to forward them to me, with your opinion upon the qualifications of the respective parties, and I shall immediately thereupon take steps for having a Contract concluded with the persons who make the most favorable offer.

Copies of the above advertisement have been enclosed to the Collector of the ports of New Bedford, Nantucket & Bath, with directions to communicate its contents to the Oil dealers in their neighneighbourhood, and to forward to you any proposals that may be received.

I am,

respectfully

Sir Your

Commissioner of the Revenue

Henry A S Dearborn Esq.

Collector

Boston.
