Treasury Department
Revenue Office April 26th 1810.

Sir

I received your favors of the 18th & 20th inst.
If Mr Prescott and yourself are of opinion that the Keeper of West Quoddy Head Light House, should be paid his Salary, you will of course do it.

Your suggestion of putting the Light House in order is approved, on the presumption that no extraordinary expense will thereby be incurred. If however repairs are wanting, exceeding in amount one hundred dollars, you will further advise me on the subject.

I am, respectfully
Sir
