Treasury Department,
Revenue Office, October 14. 1815.

Sir

The Keeper of Faulkener's Island Light House having resigned Eli Kimberly and James Vail are named to supply his place, the former is recommended by the Collector of New London, General Cushing, as most competent.

The Keeper of Lynde Point Light House being dead, John Ingraham is recommended to succeed him.

The Light House at Presq' Isle being completed the Collector of the Port, who is the Superintendant of the establishment, recommends John Bone as the best qualified for Keeper, among the numerous applicants.

It being necessary that the salary of the Keeper be fixed, it is submitted that it be three hundred dollars per annum.

For the new Light House at Buffaloe, Jonathan Lawrence appears to be the best qualified for Keeper. It is submitted that the annual salary in this case be three hundred dollars.

Eli Kimberly and James Vail are named to supply his place, the former is recommended by the Collector of New London, General Cushing, as most competent.

The Keeper of Lynde Point Light House being dead, John Ingraham is recommended to succeed him.

The Light House at Presq'Isle being completed the Collector of the Port, who is the Superintendant of the establishment, recommends John Bone as the best qualified for Keeper, among the numerous applicants.

It being necessary that the salary of the Keeper be fixed, it is submitted that it be three hundred dollars per annum.

For the new Light House at Buffaloe, Jonathan Lawrence appears to be the best qualified for Keeper. It is submitted that the annual salary in this case be three hundred dollars.

I am &c

(Signed) S. H. Smith
Commissioner of the Revenue

Hon. Secretary of the Treasury.