Treasury Department,
Fifth Auditor's Office November 3. 1825.

Sir,

Captain Joseph. P. Chandler, of the town of Monmouth, was [illegible] short time ago very respectably recommended for the Office of Keeper of the owls Head Light House, but at that time particular circumstances induced the President to confer the appointment on another person. The Keeper of Burnt Island Light House having resigned, another vacancy is created in your District, which the President is disposed to fill by the appointment of Captain Chandler, if that measure should be agreeable to him. Be pleased to inform Captain Chandler of this circumstance and make known to me, without delay, his determination on the subject. I am &c
