State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations.

In Genral Assembly May session
A D 1829.

An act to cede the jurisdiction of twenty acres of the north west point of Block Island to the United States.

Be it enacted by the Genral assembly and by the authority thereof it is enacted, that there be and hereby is granted to the United States, the jurisdiction of twenty acres of land on the north west point of Block Island, which is in the town of New-Shoreham, purchased by the United States for the building of a Light-house thereon, authorized by act of Congress: Provided nevertheless, that all civil and criminal processes issued ~~by this~~ under the authority of this State, may be executed on said land, or in and on said Light-house or other other buildings to be erected thereon in the same way or manner, as if the jurisdiction had not been ceded as aforesaid.

State of Rhode Island and
Providence Plantations.

Secretary's office May 14 1829.

I Certify that the foregoing is a true copy of an act passed at May session A D 1829 entitled "An act to cede the jurisdiction of twenty acres of the north west point of Block-Island to the United States," taken from records

Witness Henry Bowen
Secy State

BY HIS EXCELLENCY.

James Fenner

Governor, Captain-General and Commander in Chief of the State of Rhode-Island and Providence Plantations.

Be it known that the name Henry Bowen, to the aforewritten attestation subscribed, is the proper hand writing of Henry Bowen Esquire, who, at the time of subscribing the same, was Secretary of the State aforesaid, duly elected and qualified according to law: Wherefore unto his said attestation full faith and credit are to be rendered.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of said State to be affixed, at Providence, this Seventeenth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty nine and of Independence the fifty third

BY HIS EXCELLENCY'S COMMAND.

Henry Bowen
