Office of Engineer, Tenth District,

3 Inclosures.

~~Cleveland, O.~~

BUFFALO, N. Y. August 9, 1898.

Subject: Manhattan Range Lt. Sta., O.
Sendg bids for approval.

The Light-House Board,

Washington, D.C.

Sirs,

The District Engineer has the honor to forward herewith the bids received, with an abstract thereof, for furnishing 500 lineal ft. of iron railing with fittings, for use in constructing the walk from the front range beacon to the shore, at the Manhattan Range Lt. Sta., Ohio.

The price, $90.18 named in the bid of The W. Bingham Co., being the lowest and considered advantageous, has been accepted, the articles to be furnished without formal contract as authorized in the Board's letter dated 4 August, 1898. The Board's approval of the action taken is requested.

By direction of Major T.W. Symons, U.S.A. in his absence:

Respectfully yours,

Chas A. Bartlett

Clerk.
