The Germania Life Insurance company of New York has given notice that it will not do any further business in Massachusetts.

All the wooden buildings on Avery’s Rock, at the entrance of Machias, Me., harbor were blown into the sea during a severe gale. The buildings included a boathouse belonging to the Avery’s rock lighthouse. A lifeboat was carried away with it.