February 19, 1925

From: Judge Advocate General
To: Officer in Charge, Radio Station, Jupiter Inlet.
Via: Commandant, 7th Naval District, Key West, Fla.

Subject: Request for log books of the radio station - 1905.

1. It is requested that the log books of the radio station at Jupiter Inlet covering the year 1905 be forwarded to this office for use in connection with a suit in the Court of Claims.

2. As there is probably valuable data in the log books of the Jupiter Inlet station in 1905 it is requested that a thorough search be made and that the forwarding of the log books be expedited.

The Secretary of the Navy,
Washington, D.C.

Wireless Specialty Apparatus Company v. U.S.

S i r:

I have the honor to request that you send to this Department the quarterly log books of U. S. Wireless Station at Jupiter Inlet, Florida, covering the years 1905 to 1909, inclusive; also log books for the U. S. Wireless Station at St. Augustine, Florida, for the years 1907 to 1907, inclusive.

These log books are now located in the files of the Bureau of Steam Engineering at the Washington Navy Yard, and this Department wishes to utilize the books in connection with the defense of the above-entitled case.

Respectfully,

For the Attorney General,

(Herman J. Galloway),
Assistant Attorney General.
