ANDERSON, Oskar,

Gentlemen:

In accordance with your telephonic instructions of a few days ago, we are writing you with reference to a report based on the above captioned ex-service man's employment record in your service. This man is now suffering from a nervous disability. His physicians are anxious to secure a detailed report concerning his physical and nervous adjustment since service.

Mr. Anderson states that at various times from approximately 1921 to 1928, he was in the employ of the Coast Guard Service; that he served in some capacity at three different lighthouses, one being the lighthouse near San Simeon, and two others in the vicinity of San Francisco. He further states that for a period in the winter of 1927-1928 he was employed as a life guard at Rio Vista, California.

We would greatly appreciate having you check your records and, if possible, send us a report embodying the actual dates of employment, the reasons for discontinuance of Mr. Anderson's service, and any information you may have on record as to his efficiency as a workman. Equally important is any data dealing with any nervous signs or symptoms shown during his employment.

Kindly mark your reply for the attention of Miss McNey, Psychiatric Social Worker. Your cooperation in the matter is greatly appreciated.
