E. J. Hart, Keeper,
Galveston Jetty Lt. Station,
P.O. Box 327,
Galveston, Texas.

1. Referring to your letter of December 6th, relative to the services of R. L. Anderson:

2. You are advised that inasmuch as this employee is in a temporary status if he has not returned upon receipt of this letter, in view of your statements, you are authorized to separate him from the service at the close of Nov. 30th and employ someone else, furnishing the usual information. Personal question sheet is enclosed herewith. If, however, Anderson has returned to duty submit further report in his case with recommendation as to whether or not he should still be separated.

Dec. 6th, 1920

The Superintendent
New Orleans, La.

Sir:

Regarding absence of Temporary Keeper Anderson from station, In the first case (Oct. 7th to Nov. 6) I am reasonably certain this man was prevented from returning to his post on account of heavy weather, until he was finally towed by the 130 on the day Forman Sellers arrived at station.

However I have good reasons to believe that this man is at present making no effort to resume his duties and is trying to find an excuse for leaving the service, as he has been ashore since the 27th of last month and although I made a special trip ashore on Pilot launch to find out about him, I was unable to find him, but was told by members of his family that he was in bed sick, but that I could not see him.

I had to return to station without satisfying myself as to the truth of these statements, but have been told that Anderson was seen on the streets after I left his house. and will advise you further concerning the matter when the weather clears enough to enable me to get ashore again.

Respectfully
Edmund F. Hart, Keeper
