Commissioner of Lighthouses:

The Department is in receipt of the Bureau's communication of the 20th instant, with enclosures, relative to conditions at Elbow of Cross Ledge Light Station, New Jersey, and especially with reference to the conduct of John Garrison, the first assistant keeper.

Upon careful consideration of all correspondence in the case, the Department has approved the Bureau's recommendation to the effect that no action be taken in the matter at this time in view of the fact that Mr. Garrison has been transferred to the position of second assistant keeper of Brandywine Shoal Light Station, Delaware, and that the services of Isaac R. Endorsement

There is little or no truth in the printed statement. The only basis for it is the fact that his engine stopped about 3 miles from shore and Bacon was obliged to row the 19-foot boat 3 miles to Mahon River Light Station, the usual landing place. Arriving there he telephoned to the office and was directed to put engine in good order before leaving for his home in Laurel, Del.

He spent three days on the engine, the trouble being finally located in the carburetor. He was finally ordered home, a new carburetor being furnished during his leave and installed upon his return from leave.

He telephoned office when ready to return to station and was questioned about article, which appeared in all Philadelphia papers. He stated that the Associated Press correspondent at Laurel, Del., denied writing it, and he was unable to trace its origin. It is, however, an A.P. dispatch on its face.

ADRIFT 3 DAYS; HAD ONLY 1 MEAL

Lighthouse Keeper Rescued, Emaciated, After Mile Swim to Land.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Laurel, Del., July 15.—Adrift three days and three nights with only enough rations for one meal and hardly any water, with a hot sun shining down and out of the track of steamers, Capt. Julian Bacon suffered tortures and only was saved, finally, when he swam more than a mile to land. He arrived at his home in Laurel yesterday in a serious condition.

Capt. Bacon is the head keeper of Elbow of Cross Ledge Lighthouse, in the Delaware Bay, and left his station in a motor boat, when he was relieved, for shore, to make his monthly home trip. About four miles from the station his motor boat stalled and started to drift. Although Bacon saw the smoke of steamers several times he did not get close enough to any ships to signal for help, and for three days drifted in the open boat. Of food there was hardly enough for one meal, while the water was so scarce that he was compelled to dole himself out portions every six hours.

The open boat, the hot sun and the lack of food or water nearly drove the man crazy while the boat drifted in all directions. Finally late Wednesday afternoon he sighted land, and, fearing to drift off again, swam over a mile to the shore. Fishermen found him on the beach.

Sirs:

Transmitted herewith for administrative examination and report is letter which was postmarked January 2, 1948, from Mrs. Maud L. My dear Mrs. Bacon:

Headquarters has been advised of the death of your husband, Julian Bacon, Keeper, former Lighthouse Service, now United States Coast Guard, Retired, on 29 December, 1948. Please accept my sincere sympathy.

At the time of death there was due the estate of your husband final retired pay. This retired pay ceases at death and there is no law providing for the continuance of payment of any part to dependents. The forms necessary to effect settlement of the final pay are herewith inclosed.

If there will be no legal representative to administer the estate of your husband, the next of kin or the person who paid, or will pay the funeral expenses should execute the inclosed Forms No. 1055, claim for the final pay, in the presence of two witnesses, taking care to answer all questions as checked. If a representative is appointed, a copy of the Court Order showing the appointment should be attached to Forms No. 1055. If the funeral expenses have been paid, a bill receipted by the undertaker should be forwarded, otherwise, the undertaker should sign the inclosed waiver form. This information is necessary to support the claim for the final retired pay.

In the event you have in your possession any uncashed retired pay checks, these should be returned to Coast Guard Headquarters for settlement with your claim for the retired pay due on date of death.

When the inclosed forms have been completed, please return them to Coast Guard Headquarters in the inclosed pre-addressed envelope which requires no postage.

By direction of the Commandant.
