NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Cuſtom-House, Boſton, June 25, 1816.

As the Light Houſes on Baker's Iſland, at the entrance of Salem Harbour, in Maſſachuſetts, are to be taken down, and a new Light Houſe erected on the ſame ſite, the lights will be extinguiſhed after the 1ſt day of July until the 11th day of September next, when the lamps in the new Lantern will be lit. The new light will be a ſingle ſtationary one.

Editors of Newſpapers in the ſea ports of the United States, will render an eſſential ſervice to commerce, by giving publicity to thit notice.

H. A. S. DEARBORN,

Superintendant of Light Houses in Maſs.