Gentlemen:

Referring to the Board's request of April 18, 1905, that Mr. Otto Heins be appointed second assistant keeper of the Cape Blanco Light-Station, Oregon, to date from April 1, or as soon thereafter as he may have entered on duty, and to the memorandum of April 24 by the Chief Clerk of the Board that Mrs. Bretherton, who vacates the position to be filled through Mr. Heins' appointment, be appointed to take effect on the date she enters on duty, which will not be until the Department letter making the transfer and appointment reaches her, the Board's attention is invited to the fact that Mr. Heins' period of eligibility expired at the close of the day of April 1, 1905.

If Mrs. Bretherton does not vacate the position of second assistant keeper of the Cape Blanco station until April 26, 1905, or subsequently, it is apparent that Mr. Heins cannot be probationally appointed to that position.

If the Board is not satisfied that Mrs. Bretherton did not enter on duty at the North Head station on April 1, it is suggested that the Inspector of the Thirteenth District be requested by telegraph to state the date she did enter on duty.

Secretary.

Dear Mr. Bradley,-

This is a case that goes with the transfer of Mrs. Brethertow, as Mr. Heins is to take, or has presumably taken, the place made vacant by Mrs. B. The Insp. has twice asked that they take effect on Apl. 1, & we have assumed that he was obliged to make the changes at that. The Insp. will be instructed in regard to all future cases of this kind.
