The proceedings and findings of a summary court, convened at U. S. Coast Guard Charleston Base, Charleston, South Carolina, August 11, 1941, in the case of William S. Bryant (227-001), officers' steward, first class, U. S. Coast Guard Cutter CYPRESS, are approved.

The members of the court failed to transmit with the record of proceedings in this case either a recommendation to clemency or a statement to the effect that, in their opinion, no mitigating circumstances warranting the extension of clemency appeared during the trial or were within their knowledge. Members of courts and officers convening courts are advised that the Department expects them to comply with the instructions set forth in Item 1, Law Bulletin No. 66.

This man was found guilty of scandalous conduct tending to the destruction of good morals, under two specifications (1) April 7, 1941 and (2) April 2, 1941. He was sentenced to be dishonorably discharged from the U. S. Coast Guard.

The sentence is approved, but mitigated to the following:

To be discharged from the U. S. Coast Guard with a bad conduct discharge.

The Commanding Officer, U. S. Coast Guard Charleston Base, is directed to cause the sentence, as mitigated, to be carried into effect.
