Submitted to the Secretary of Commerce, approved. Mr. Dell was assigned to duty at this station on December 15, 1935, when the station was placed in operation, in the capacity of a laborer acting as substitute keeper, there being no other suitable person available at the time for this duty. Effective January 24, 1936, he was temporarily appointed as keeper pending the establishment of a register of eligibles. The position was filled by transfer effective May 24. As Mr. Dell was not granted leave prior to that date, it is recommended that a temporary additional position as indicated be authorized for the period May 24 to July 13, inclusive, in order that he may be compensated for accumulated leave.
