TREASURY DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON , April 6, 1909.

OFFICE OF GENERAL SUPERINTENDENT OF LIFE-SAVING SERVICE

IN REPLYING QUOTE THESE FIGURES:

L.R.103113

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Treasury.

(Division of Appointments).

Sir:

I have the honor to inform you that Ray W. Dierlam, formerly surfman of the Brazos life-saving station, has applied for reinstatement in this Service that he may be enlisted in the crew of the same station.

Records of this office show that Ray W. Dierlam was enlisted at the Brazos station on May 6, 1908, and that he became separated from the Service on July 31, 1908, by the expiration of the term of his enlistment. Mr. Dierlam states that, with the exception of a cousin, he has no relatives in the government service.

I have therefore to recommend that the necessary certificate in this case be procured from the Civil Service Commission, authorizing the reinstatement of Ray W. Dierlam in the Service with a view to his enlistment in the crew of the Brazos station, as recommended by the keeper of the station named and the district officers.

Respectfully,

Acting General Superintendent.
