Daniel J. Doyle,
nomination.

April 7, 1915.

Lighthouse Inspector, Portland, Maine.

Referring to your nomination, form 73, dated April 3, 1915, in the case of Daniel J. Doyle.

The Bureau has changed the position stated thereon from assistant keeper to laborer, and has marked out the name of the previous incumbent as stated together with the date of the termination of his services and the reason therefor, and has added the following note "New position authorized by Department letter of April 2, 1915."

Advise the district secretary of the changes made in this nomination by the Bureau.

See Department letter of April 2, 1915, authorizing the position in question, indorsed to you today.

The Bureau has also added to the nomination of Doyle after "Action recommended, Temporary appointment" the words "for not to exceed three months".
