Keeper,
Choptank River Light Station,
Oxford, Md.

Referring to report of recent inspection of your station, I have to state that it appears that the condition of the painting of the station gives evidence of some carelessness and neglect on the part of the keepers. It is also noted that record of leave of absence is not kept in the back of the station journal as you have been previously instructed, and as is required by paragraph 105, sub-paragraph 11, Instructions to Employees of the Lighthouse Service, 1915. It is further noted that the Inspector's orders of June 24, 1915, relative to greater detail in the journal record have not been carried out.

It is further noted that, although you were absent from the station, there was no notation in the journal on the date on which you left the station. The journal was written by the assistant keeper for September 23rd and 24th, whereas the watch-book was left blank on those days apparently for your signature on return. The watch-book must invariably be signed at the close of the watch by the keeper who actually stood the watch.

From the above-mentioned facts, it appears that the leave privilege at your station is being abused to the detriment of the condition of the station, in accordance with which further leave of absence for yourself and assistant keeper will be refused by this office in accordance with paragraph 110 of the Instructions to Employees of the Lighthouse Service, 1915.

Another inspection of your station will be made within the next sixty days, during which period you will have an opportunity to correct the conditions above outlined.

Copies of this letter have been furnished the Commissioner of Lighthouses, Washington, D.C.

H. D. King.

Men of intemperate habits, and those who are otherwise mentally or physically incapable of performing the duties of light keepers, must not be nominated for appointment.

Keepers, when appointed, will receive instructions from the inspector as to the time of entering upon their duties, and will be paid at the rates stipulated in their appointments, from the date at which they actually enter upon their duties, and not before.

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR, 5TH DISTRICT
BALTIMORE, MD.

September 27, 1915.

Keeper,
Choptank River Light Station,
Oxford, Md.

Referring to report of recent inspection of your station, I have to state that it appears that the condition of the painting of the station gives evidence of some carelessness and neglect on the part of the keepers. It is also noted that record of leave of absence is not kept in the back of the station journal as you have been previously instructed, and as is required by paragraph 105, sub-paragraph 11, Instructions to Employees of the Lighthouse Service, 1915. It is further noted that the Inspector's orders of June 24, 1915, relative to greater detail in the journal record have not been carried out.

It is further noted that, although you were absent from the station, there was no notation in the journal on the date on which you left the station. The journal was written by the assistant keeper for September 23rd and 24th, whereas the watch-book was left blank on those days apparently for your signature on return. The watch-book must invariably be signed at the close of the watch by the keeper who actually stood the watch.

From the above-mentioned facts, it appears that the leave privilege at your station is being abused to the detriment of the condition of the station, in accordance with which further leave of absence for yourself and assistant keeper will be refused by this office in accordance with paragraph 110 of the Instructions to Employees of the Lighthouse Service, 1915.

Another inspection of your station will be made within the next sixty days, during which period you will have an opportunity to correct the conditions above outlined.

Copies of this letter have been furnished the Commissioner of Lighthouses, Washington, D.C.
