REC'D MAR 12 1940

Honorable Senator Walsh
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator:

I am sorry to bother you but would greatly appreciate it if you would look into this.

George H. Fitzpatrick has been in the light house service for 19 years and is now head Keeper of Minot's Light off Cohasset, Mass. Since the Light House Service has been made a branch of the U. S. Navy he has been rated as 1st Class Boatswain's Mate which reduces his pay. He feels he should be rated as Chief Boatswains' Mate in order to support his family as he has done in the past and receive recognition for his length of service instead of a pay reduction.

If you could do anything for him I would appreciate it very much. You have helped me in the past through Mary and Julia Walsh of Hingham Mass.

I would appreciate an answer either favorable or unfavorable.

Respectfully yours
Daniel E. McSweeny

Honorable David I. Walsh,
United States Senate,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Senator:

I have your letter of March 11, inclosing one from Mr. Daniel E. McSweeny of Cohasset, Massachusetts, in the interest of Mr. George H. Fitzpatrick, Keeper of Minots Ledge Light Station, Massachusetts.

The Lighthouse Service was consolidated with the Coast Guard on July 1, 1939, pursuant to the President's reorganization program, and to perfect the consolidation the Act of August 5, 1939 (Public No. 291), provided for the induction of certain personnel of the former Lighthouse Service into the military branch of the Coast Guard. Measures have been in progress for some time now to consummate this induction, and in carrying the matter out practically a policy has been established to induct the men who qualify into a military grade or rating which would give them pay and allowances approximating their pay in their present civil service status. Moreover, the law provides that persons inducted shall not suffer any reduction in the total of their present pay and allowances, so that in the case of Mr. Fitzpatrick's induction he will not sustain any reduction in his present total pay.

Very sincerely yours,

R. R. WAESCHE,
Rear Admiral, U. S. Coast Guard,
Commandant.
