Sir.

Inclosed herewith find the resignation of Jens. Asst Jordan. which he sent out to me on the 3rd. inst. I sent him to town after provisions on the 30th on the pilot boat as I found the station launch out of order when I tried it out. He left here knowing that we had barely two days supply at the station Not hearing from him or receiving any provisions I got a fisherman to go in and get them for us on Tuesday. The mail was sent out Wednesday and your letter to Jordan with the enclosed "letter" was with it. He has not returned and I understand that he has a job in town.

Would suggest that his resignation be excepted and dated Nov. 30th as he has been away from the station since that date.

Sir

Regarding the position left vacant by the resignation of D. M. Jordan. If you have no one on the register I may be able to get another man through the U. S. Employment Agency.

A number of men are being discharged from the Army every day and many of them go there. This last man who came to the Station on the 28th came from the Agency and is going to make a good man.

Awaiting your reply I remain
