Referring to Form 73 forwarded to the Bureau May 2,1916 transmitting resignation of Edward Grime, assistant keeper of Southwest Ledge Light Station, and recommending that same be accepted, but not without prejudice, effective at the close of April 28,1916.

The Bureau is informed that telegraphic authority to assign Grime to duty was received from the Bureau on April 24th, and he was directed by this office, on same date, to report for duty at once. He arrived at the station on April 26th, and left the station on April 28th. Letter from Grime, dated April 26th, and our reply thereto, dated April 27th, and letter from the Keeper dated April 28th, and our letter to Grime of April 29th,1916, are enclosed for the Bureau's consideration.

As Grime's attention was called to the Regulations in regard to submitting resignation, in our letter of April 27,1916, and as he left the station without giving due notice of his intention to this office, it was recommended that his resignation be accepted, but not without prejudice.
