

1902 Homer.—This screw steamship, of about 665 tons burden, was chartered on June 23, 1902, for use in building Scotch Cap, East, and other light-stations in Alaska.

1903 Homer.—This screw steamship was chartered on June 23, 1902, for use in building Scotch Cap light-station, Alaska, and was returned to her owners on December 9, 1902. She was again chartered for use in constructing Cape Sarichef light-station, Alaska, on April 20, 1903.

1904 Homer.—This screw steamer was chartered on April 23, 1903, for use in building light-stations in Alaska, and was returned to her owners on December 1, 1903. She was again chartered for similar work on April 28, 1904, and is still under charter.

HIRED VESSEL.

1905 Homer.—This screw steamer was chartered on April 28, 1904, for use in building light-stations in Alaska, and was returned to her owners on July 18, 1904. She was again chartered for similar work on June 13, 1905, and is still under charter.

1906 Homer.—This screw steamship was chartered on June 13, 1905, for use in constructing Eldred Rock light-station, Alaska. She was returned to her owners on July 9, 1905.