John Hulihee,
Second Assistant Keeper Makapuu Point Light Station. (Through the Keeper.)

1. You have recently completed your first year as a Keeper in the Lighthouse Service, and the Superintendent believes it desirable to remind you that your future success in this Service depends on your record from day to day, and this record in your position as Second Assistant Keeper is principally dependent on the satisfaction you are able to give the principal Keeper of the Station where you are on duty, so far as it concerns your conduct and work at the Station.

2. In answer to inquiries regarding your record at Makapuu Point, the principal Keeper reports to the Superintendent that your station work has been satisfactory and that you have shown willingness and aptitude for the Service, but that you have on some occasions been careless in observing regulations of this Service, possibly because you had not been advised as to certain restrictions.

3. For this reason, the Superintendent takes this opportunity of reminding you that any instructions given you by the principal Keeper, unless such instructions should be plainly in violation of published instructions to employees, must be faithfully observed. It has come to the Superintendent's attention that you have not been punctual in observing instructions for returning to the Station before sunset, that when left in charge of the Station, you have left the reservation, that you have mutilated official blank books, and that evidence exists that you have used certain Station's supplies for personal use.

4. It should be unnecessary for the Superintendent to point out that such conduct not only injures your record, but is wrong, and it is expected that in future, you will be very careful to observe all instructions and remember that the personal use of any Government supplies is a very serious offense.

5. The Superintendent is now considering the possibility of disallowing you the privilege of keeping an automobile at the Station, and the decision in this matter will depend principally on your future conduct as may be reported by the Keeper.

6. There is excellent opportunity for young men in this Service, but promotion is dependent on faithful attention to duty, willingness to work, and good conduct. It is believed that once you thoroughly understand the high standards required in this Service, you will make every effort to establish a good record and deserve promotion when the opportunity arrives.

R. R. TINKHAM,
Superintendent of Lighthouses.

The Keeper at this Station is greatly handicaps by the action of unfaithful assistants such as Mr. Kuliko, Keeper will bring the two books to the Office of the Supt. of Light Houses for inspection should the Superintendent wish to.

On the 10th of July Mr. Kuliko asked to go to town to change his pay check and pay his bills, Keeper instructed him he can go to town, but must come back before sun set as the Superintendent of Light Houses wants all keepers here before sun set, He promise to do so, But Mr. Kuliko did not get home till 15 minutes to 8 P.M.

Mr. Kuliko has been giving all changes to understand about the Light House work, to care and his duty to the Service, It is not the Keepers fault that he has gone wrong, The Keeper does not care to have him work here, as he is very unfaithful.
