Dear Sir,

In answer to the letter received from the office that Mr. Perry the 1st asst. wrote saying I refused to work at different times and refused to do the cooking.

Mr. Perry lost the kitchen knife that was used around the kitchen when he was fishing and then came to the kitchen and took the one I had to use in place of the one he lost and would not let me have any knife to work with so I had to do the cooking according to what I had to do with.

I had to call Mr. Tornberg to bring me a kitchen knife.

I have never refused to do my duties at any time while here at the Light.

Mr. Perry has been very disagreeable and abused me at times when the keeper was ashore.
