April 16, 1918.

Caution.

Joseph A. Kidder,
Assistant Keeper, Barbers Point Light Station,
Ewa, Oahu, T. H. (Through the Keeper)

Your explanation as to why you were absent from your station from 5 P. M. April 6th to 8 P. M. April 7th is unsatisfactory.

In regard to your wife and child being sick, the Lighthouse Inspector always gives consideration to such matters and would have authorized you to be absent from your station had you asked permission. As you were in Honolulu and as the Inspector was available either at the office or at his home by phone, such permission could have been easily obtained. As you, however, failed to obtain this permission and report that you were too late on two successive occasions to catch your train back to the station, it is evident that you were more careless than is consistent with good lighthouse keeping. You are therefore cautioned against being absent from your station without authority in the future.
