Dear Ms Tugel:

This responds to your May 19th letter requesting information on former Crescent City Lighthouse "Keepers" (Theophilis Magruder, Captain John H. Jeffrey, John E. Lind, and Jacob or Joseph Marhoffer).

A special search was conducted by the National Personnel Records Center (NPRC) for records regarding Federal employment of these individuals. NPRC located records on Captain Jeffrey, Mr. Lind and Joseph Marhoffer; they did not find any records on Mr. Magruder or Jacob Marhoffer.

As I explained in my previous letter of March 27th, I have authority to release materials in the OPF to you. Because proof of death is provided in each individual's OPF, I have enclosed exact copies of records retained in their OPF's.

I regret the delay in providing you the information. I trust the enclosed materials are helpful to you.

Captain Lind On Retired List After 40 Years Service

CRESCENT CITY, June 4. — Fourteen years at one lighthouse! Forty-three years in the government service! That is the record of Capt. John Lind, keeper at the Crescent City lighthouse on Battery Point.

Now he has retired, at the age of seventy-two, to spend his days away from lighthouses—away from a surf pounding at one's very threshold. For the government appreciates service such as Captain Lind has given it, and pensions are provided for men who have served long and faithfully.

Beginning government service in the construction of the Northwest Seal Rock lighthouse, on St.George Reef, near here, in 1892, Captain Lind was in the Lighthouse Engineers Service for four years. Then, upon the abolishment of that department, he went to the lighthouse at Point Arguello, in Santa Barbara county. That was in 1901. He was soon transferred, also in 1901, to Pigeon Point, in San Mateo county. Then to Makapuu light, near Honolulu, in 1910. Not for long, however, for the same year saw him back on the California coast, at New Year's Island, in Santa Cruz county. Three years there, three more at Table Bluff light, near Eureka, beginnin gin 1913. Then to Crescent City in 1916.

Lonesome? Hardly. Mrs. Lind wouldn't allow such a thing.

Captain and Mrs. Lind are at Fort Dick, near here, at present, with Mrs. Lind's relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hussey. They will soon pull stakes and trek down to San Pedro and San Diego, though because there are more relatives—and friends—friends everywhere.

Captain and Mrs. Otto Becker, from Hueneme light, Ventura county, have taken over the Crescent City light. Captain Becker's service—twenty years—has been spread out pretty well, also. Incidentally, Captain Becker and Captain Lind were together at Pigeon Point in 1901, before Captain Lind turned over the light to Captain Becker.

A disciple of accuracy, Captain Lind has compiled the length of his time in the lighthouse service. It is thirty-seven years, nine months and twenty-nine days.
