Sir.

I was discharged from the Light House Service. March 20th 1925 and have been working lately but have a better position in sight. I am writing to see if you can help me out a little with a recommendation under the condition that I was discharged for. I am home now and feel like a new man and know that it will never happen again.

So hoping you will do me a favor if the firm writes for one.

1. Copied and returned in accordance with Bureau's endorsement March 26, 1925.

2. I have to state that the character and attitude of Mr. Edgar W. Lovatt, former assistant keeper of the Ram Island Ledge Lighthouse, who was dismissed from the Lighthouse Service as results of charges preferred against him, are unworthy of consideration toward his reinstatement in the Lighthouse Service, as it is believed he is not of the character and class of man who respects either himself or the position which he held.

3. In view of the findings of charges as preferred against him, his reinstatement or consideration for the Lighthouse Service is not recommended.
