Reference(b) District C.G.Officers letter of 10/31/42.

1. The undersigned, respectfully acknowledges receipt of Ref.(a) also, cheque for $24.50; four days pay, under authority of Ref.(b). There is however an error in the time period, which totaled five & one half days, Dec. 1 to 5 inclusive, counting in Saturday as one and one half days.

2. It is, with a thought of remedying possible pay roll complications, due to the undersigned being listed as a carpenter by authority of the District C.G.Officer, in a former letter, and signing the pay roll at the Oak Island C.G. station on a pay basis of $10.08 per diem although receiving $6.16 per diem as helper, as specified in Ref.(b). Amending the former status.

There are returned herewith your nominations in favor of the appointments of Joseph D. Meade and Arthur Bouder.

These nominations may not be approved in view of the fact that you have indicated thereon, in connection with the appointment of Arthur Bouder, that you have considered William A. Selection should have been made from one of these three.

For your next appointment Joseph D. Meade; assuming that you did not select William A.Clark you would have considered either Nathan Gordon or Joseph D. Meade, depending upon which one was selected in connection with the previous appointment, Joseph D. Meade and Stephen W. Croghan.
