Dear Sir:

In reference to your letter recently received authorizing me to report at the marine hospital Stapleton Staten Isld, N.Y. for physicial examination this I did on 14th July arriving at the hospital 2:00 P.M. and after reporting at the registry office within the hospital was detained from the above time until 3:50 P.M. at which time the papers were returned to me with instructions to go into Dr Dolan's office this I did and handed the papers to the doctor he then advised me it was to late to ~~examination~~ examine me, I asked the reason and he said it would take time since ex-rays had to be taken. it apparently was thought at the registry office that I was only to have an ordinary physicial exam. as there were other persons there been done ahead of me who were only having a ordinary physicial exam. However my eyes ears nose teeth & throat were examined. You are therefore advised of the delay in examination and I will return again to the hospital on or about the 4th August to have the examination completed.

SUBJECT: Trip to West Point Light Station, Hudson River, N.Y. - Work Order No. 23443.

1. In accordance with instructions contained in Work Order No. 23443, dated April 2nd, 1934, I proceeded to West Point Light Station, Hudson River, New York, on April 2nd, 1934, to make arrangements for the care of the light station pending the recovery of Light Attendant Stephen J. Nolan, who had been struck and injured by an automobile on Saturday night, March 31st, 1934, while he was crossing the street at the corner of Broadway and Liberty Streets, Newburgh, N. Y.

2. Upon my arrival at West Point, New York, I learned that St. Lukes Hospital, where Light Attendant Nolan is confined, is located on Dubois Street, Newburgh, N.Y.

3. I went down to the light station and found the key to the fog signal house, and the key to the light tower was on a small table in the fog signal house. I entered the light tower and could plainly see that the light had been lighted on Sunday night, April 1st, as the 5th Order kerosene lamp was out of the lens and it was laying on the platform ready for use on the evening of April 2nd. The lamp was filled with oil and the chimney was perfectly clean. The lantern sun shades were all up and in their proper places, indicating that somebody had extinguished the light on Monday morning, April 2nd.

4. I then proceeded to St. Lukes Hospital, Newburgh, N.Y., to interview Stephen J. Nolan, Light Attendant of West Point Light Station. Nolan advised me that on Sunday afternoon, April 1st, he had made an attempt by means of the hospital telephone to get in touch with Peter J. Gross, who resides in a fishing shack on the property of Mr. Calbert, a former surgeon in the U. S. Cavalry, at Magazine Point, New York. However, Nolan could not get the Calbert family on the telephone, as they were away from the premises on Easter Sunday. As an alternative, Nolan called a garage owner down at Highland Falls, N.Y., and requested him to get in touch with a Mr. Luke Rafferty and instruct him to light the light on Sunday evening. Whether or not the garage owner did get in touch with Luke Rafferty, Nolan does not know.

5. On Sunday morning, April 1st, Mr. Gross had come across the Hudson River from Magazine Point to West Point in his power boat, and had left his boat moored in the vicinity of the West Point Light Station, and then he continued down to Haverstraw, N. Y. over the road. Upon Mr. Gross's return to West Point Light Station, for his power boat, on the evening of Sunday, April 1st, he noticed that the light was not burning, and he called for the Light Attendant, with whom he is acquainted, but received no reply. Mr. Gross observed some people, with a flash light and an axe, coming down the path, and Mr. Gross called out, "Hello, Steve" (meaning Stephen J. Nolan). The reply from the party with the searchlight was, "This is not Steve. I am Captain Parsons. I have been instructed by the lighthouse authorities at Staten Island, N. Y. tobreak into the light station and light the light." Whereupon Gross informed Captain Parsons that it would not be necessary to force the door as he was familiar with the light station and would attend to the light during the absence of the Light Attendant.

6. I called Mr. Calbert on the telephone from Newburgh, N.Y. to make sure that Mr. Gross would take care of the light until the return of Nolan, which will probably be on Saturday night, April 7th, 1934. Mr. Calbert advised me that Gross would surely take care of the light and that they felt greatly relieved in learning of the whereabouts of Steve Nolan. Mr. Calbert was also requested to advise Gross that, should he see Luke Rafferty, the party who Nolan had asked the garage owner to locate , that he, Gross, had been instructed by the Lighthouse people to take care of the light station during the further illness of the Light Attendant.

7. I returned to the West Point Light Station from Newburgh, N.Y. at 8:00 p.m., April2nd, to satisfy myself that the light had been lighted by Peter J. Gross, and I found that he had attended to the light. Mr. Gross had taken the key to the fog signal house with him after having lighted the light on Monday night, and, as Nolan has all of his personal belongings in the fog signal house, I thought it best to let Mr. Gross keep the key in his possession. If it becomes necessary to get in touch with Peter J. Gross, the telephone number is Cold Spring 26, and ask for Surgeon Calbert.

8. Light Attendant Nolan advised me that he had patrolled the three acetylene lights on Saturday morning, March 31st, 1934, and that there was 7-1/2 atmospheres of pressure at Magazine Point, and 5-1/2 atmospheres at both Con Hook and Anthonys Nose.

9. Nolan's injuries, as shown by the hospital registration card,are contusions and abrasions of both legs, and his right arm is also badly bruised. The admittance card also shows that Nolan was struck by an automobile which was being operated by Mr. Clarence LaVee, of Cornwall-on-the-Hudson, an employee of the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Co., 129 Broadway, Newburgh, N.Y. Two men were in the automobile at the time they struck Nolan, and they, together with a policeman, took Nolan to St. Lukes Hospital. Nolan was admitted to the hospital at 11:55 p.m., March 31st, 1934.

10. The insurance people have been up to see Nolan and from all indications it looks as if the accident was entirely the fault of the driver of the automobile. I understand that the automobile in question is the property of the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Company and that the occupants of the car were returning from having attended to company business. It was raining very hard at the time of the accident and Nolan was just about to put his foot on the curbing when the automobile rounded the corner and tossed him into the air.

11. When I left the light station at 8:00 p.m. on the evening of April 2nd, I could hear Mr. Gross's power boat over on the east shore of the Hudson River. He was over their fishing as Mr. Calbert had advised he would be. If I could have obtained entrance to the fog signal house, I had intended to start the fog signal bell, as this would have brought Mr. Gross over to the light station to see who was there. However, Gross had taken the key with him and I did not think it worth while to force an entrance to accomplish my purpose.

Respectfully submitted,

Alfred Dawson.

SUBJECT: Trip to West Point Light Station, Hudson River, N.Y. - Work Order No. 23443.

1. In accordance with instructions contained in Work Order No. 23443, dated April 2nd, 1934, I proceeded to West Point Light Station, Hudson River, New York, on April 2nd, 1934, to make arrangements for the care of the light station pending the recovery of Light Attendant Stephen J. Nolan, who had been struck and injured by an automobile on Saturday night, March 31st, 1934, while he was crossing the street at the corner of Broadway and Liberty Streets, Newburgh, N. Y.

2. Upon my arrival at West Point, New York, I learned that St. Lukes Hospital, where Light Attendant Nolan is confined, is located on Dubois Street, Newburgh, N.Y.

3. I went down to the light station and found the key to the fog signal house, and the key to the light tower was on a small table in the fog signal house. I entered the light tower and could plainly see that the light had been lighted on Sunday night, April 1st, as the 5th Order kerosene lamp was out of the lens and it was laying on the platform ready for use on the evening of April 2nd. The lamp was filled with oil and the chimney was perfectly clean. The lantern sun shades were all up and in their proper places, indicating that somebody had extinguished the light on Monday morning, April 2nd.

4. I then proceeded to St. Lukes Hospital, Newburgh, N.Y., to interview Stephen J. Nolan, Light Attendant of West Point Light Station. Nolan advised me that on Sunday afternoon, April 1st, he had made an attempt by means of the hospital telephone to get in touch with Peter J. Gross, who resides in a fishing shack on the property of Mr. Calbert, a former surgeon in the U. S. Cavalry, at Magazine Point, New York. However, Nolan could not get the Calbert family on the telephone, as they were away from the premises on Easter Sunday. As an alternative, Nolan called a garage owner down at Highland Falls, N.Y., and requested him to get in touch with a Mr. Luke Rafferty and instruct him to light the light on Sunday evening. Whether or not the garage owner did get in touch with Luke Rafferty, Nolan does not know.

5. On Sunday morning, April 1st, Mr. Gross had come across the Hudson River from Magazine Point to West Point in his power boat, and had left his boat moored in the vicinity of the West Point Light Station, and then he continued down to Haverstraw, N. Y. over the road. Upon Mr. Gross's return to West Point Light Station, for his power boat, on the evening of Sunday, April 1st, he noticed that the light was not burning, and he called for the Light Attendant, with whom he is acquainted, but received no reply. Mr. Gross observed some people, with a flash light and an axe, coming down the path, and Mr. Gross called out, "Hello, Steve" (meaning Stephen J. Nolan). The reply from the party with the searchlight was, "This is not Steve. I am Captain Parsons. I have been instructed by the lighthouse authorities at Staten Island, N. Y. tobreak into the light station and light the light." Whereupon Gross informed Captain Parsons that it would not be necessary to force the door as he was familiar with the light station and would attend to the light during the absence of the Light Attendant.

6. I called Mr. Calbert on the telephone from Newburgh, N.Y. to make sure that Mr. Gross would take care of the light until the return of Nolan, which will probably be on Saturday night, April 7th, 1934. Mr. Calbert advised me that Gross would surely take care of the light and that they felt greatly relieved in learning of the whereabouts of Steve Nolan. Mr. Calbert was also requested to advise Gross that, should he see Luke Rafferty, the party who Nolan had asked the garage owner to locate, that he, Gross, had been instructed by the Lighthouse people to take care of the light station during the further illness of the Light Attendant.

7. I returned to the West Point Light Station from Newburgh, N.Y. at 8:00 p.m., April2nd, to satisfy myself that the light had been lighted by Peter J. Gross, and I found that he had attended to the light. Mr. Gross had taken the key to the fog signal house with him after having lighted the light on Monday night, and, as Nolan has all of his personal belongings in the fog signal house, I thought it best to let Mr. Gross keep the key in his possession. If it becomes necessary to get in touch with Peter J. Gross, the telephone number is Cold Spring 26, and ask for Surgeon Calbert.

8. Light Attendant Nolan advised me that he had patrolled the three acetylene lights on Saturday morning, March 31st, 1934, and that there was 7-1/2 atmospheres of pressure at Magazine Point, and 5-1/2 atmospheres at both Con Hook and Anthonys Nose.

9. Nolan's injuries, as shown by the hospital registration card, are contusions and abrasions of both legs, and his right arm is also badly bruised. The admittance card also shows that Nolan was struck by an automobile which was being operated by Mr. Clarence LaVee, of Cornwall-on-the-Hudson, an employee of the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Co., 129 Broadway, Newburgh, N.Y. Two men were in the automobile at the time they struck Nolan, and they, together with a policeman, took Nolan to St. Lukes Hospital. Nolan was admitted to the hospital at 11:55 p.m., March 31st, 1934.

10. The insurance people have been up to see Nolan and ... all indications it looks as if the accident was entirely ... fault of the driver of the automobile. I understand that ... automobile in question is the roperty of the Central Hudson ... and Electric Company and that the occupants of the car were returning from having attended to company business. It was raining very hard at the time of the accident and Nolan was just about to put his foot on the curbing when the automobile rounded the corner and tossed him into the air.

11. When I left the light station at 8:00 p.m. on the evening of April 2nd, I could hear Mr. Gross's power boat over on the east shore of the Hudson River. He was over their fishing as Mr. Calbert had advised he would be. If I could have obtained entrance to the fog signal house, I had intended to start the fog signal bell, as this would have brought Mr. Gross over to the light station to see who was there. However, Gross had taken the key with him and I did not think it worth while to force an entrance to accomplish my purpose.

Respectfully submitted,

SUBJECT: New position of Lamplighter of West Point etc.Lights, N.Y.

1. Referring to letter from this office dated January 13,1925 and Bureau letter of June 26,1925 re reclassification of pay of keepers; the Bureau is advised that in accordance with Department letter dated September 29,1932, addressed to A.Philip Anderson, Keeper of West Point Light Station, the services of Mr.Anderson will be discontinued in the near future, and it is therefore recommended that the position of Keeper of West Point Light Station, Con Hook, Anthony's Nose and Magazine Point Lights, New York, with pay at the rate of $1200 per annum, be discontinued, and that there be authorized in lieu thereof one position of Lamplighter of West Point Light Station, Con Hook, Anthony's Nose and Magazine Point Lights, New York, with pay at the rate of $1200 per annum, payable from the appropriation Salaries,Keepers of Lighthouses, funds allotted, the effective date to be later determined and reported to the Bureau.

2. There are no quarters for either the incumbent or his family in connection with this position, and the conditions and duties in general are not comparable with those of a regular light station. As the incumbent must provide living facilities at his own expense, and as it is essential that the incumbent be a dependable man who will attend and maintain the lights and fog bell in a reliable manner, it is not considered advisable to fix the rate of pay of the Lamplighter at less than the present rate of $1200 per annum.

New position of Lamplighter of West Point etc. Lights, N. Y., your letter of October 12;

1. Returned to Superintendent of Lighthouses, Staten Island, N. Y. for further report and recommendation in the light of the following comments:

(a) Your letter above stresses the need for a salary of $1200 per annum for this position, but in a justification form accompanying your separate letter of the same date the proposed salary is stipulated as $960 per annum.

(b) The same justification indicates the vacancy will occur by dismissal October 20, when as a matter of fact the dismissal of Keeper A. Philip Anderson will leave a vacancy in the position of Keeper which is to be discontinued, rather than the position of Lamplighter which is proposed for authorization.

(c) Is the position which is proposed as Lamplighter to be a part-time or a full time position?

(d) How is it to be filled? If by transfer, indicate the present designation, pay, etc. of the proposed incumbent.

2. Unless it appears the proposed change in arrangement for caring for the aids in question can be consummated without undue difficulty or delay, it may be necessary although not desirable to defer such action for the present fiscal year and to fill the position of Keeper which is to be vacated.

2. The salary stated in the letter of justification should have been $1200 per annum. Technically there will be no vacancy at this station, but one position replaces the other. The proposed position of Lamplighter is to be a part-time position. There is a Seaman on Lightship No.68 with pay at the rate of $62.50 per month who will be discharged in the near future, and it is proposed to later reemploy him in this position. As Seaman he is also furnished with subsistence and living quarters in addition to pay, therefore it is not considered that the matter involves promotion.

Proposed new position of lamplighter of West Point, etc., Lights, N. Y.; your indorsement of October 31.

On the face of your recommendation it would appear that either the proposed salary is excessive or that the proposed designation is incorrect. If, as you have stated, this position is to require only part-time services, the justification for a salary of $1200 per annum is not apparent. On the other hand if full-time services are to be required, and in this connection it is presumed that under the proposed arrangement the incumbent will absorb all of the duties heretofore performed by the former keeper, it would appear that a designation of light attendant would be proper. Your further report is requested.

2. The duties of the incumbent of this position include caring for West Point Light (kerosene oil), West Point Fog Bell, and also the care of three acetylene lights on the Hudson River - Con Hook, Anthony's Nose and Magazine Point. While these duties do not occupy the full time of a man it is important that they be properly performed as evidenced by recent correspondence concerning the present keeper, and the rate of pay of $1200 per annum is not considered to be excessive if the required duties are efficiently performed. While this is a part time job it is in a sparsely settled locality where other part time work cannot be obtained by the incumbent as readily as would be the case if he was in or near a city or town of some size. There are no quarters provided by the Government, therefore the incumbent must provide his own quarters and at some distance from West Point Light, as the latter is located on the West Point Military Reservation. It is considered that the title of Lamplighter is proper according to the requirements of the position and would place this position on the same footing as other Lamplighters in this District having comparable duties. It is accordingly recommended that the title of the new position be designated as Lamplighter.

Your indorsement of November 14 re filling of position of lamplighter in charge of West Point, etc., Lights, N. Y.

1. The Bureau has submitted justification to the Department for filling this position at the rate of $1200 per annum as proposed by you, but under the designation of light attendant instead of under the designation of lamplighter, it being considered that the rate of pay of $1200 per annum makes this properly a full-time position, which makes the designation of light attendant the proper one. It is understood that the duties of the position ~~were~~ are substantially the same as they were previously when the position was filled under the designation of keeper, and for this reason also it is considered that the position is properly a full-time rather than a part-time one.

2. At the proper time your office should submit recommendation for the discontinuance of the position of keeper, including a statement in regard to the disposition of the services of the last incumbent.

November 22, 1932.

Superintendent of Lighthouses, Staten Island, N. Y.

Your indorsement of November 14 re filling of position of lamplighter in charge of West Point, etc., Lights, N. Y.

1. The Bureau has submitted justification to the Department for filling this position at the rate of $1200 per annum as proposed by you, but under the designation of light attendant instead of under the designation of lamplighter, it being considered that the rate of pay of $1200 per annum makes this properly a full-time position, which makes the designation of light attendant the proper one. It is understood that the duties of the position ~~were~~ are substantially the same as they were previously when the position was filled under the designation of keeper, and for this reason also it is considered that the position is properly a full-time rather than a part-time one.

2. At the proper time your office should submit recommendation for the discontinuance of the position of keeper, including a statement in regard to the disposition of the services of the last incumbent.

For the Commissioner:

W. P. HARMAN,
Administrative Assistant.

SUBJECT: Keeper - West Point Light Station.

1. Proceeded to West Point Light Station, N. Y., accompanied by newly appointed keeper, S. J. Nolan, on January 17, 1933, as per Work Order 20000; arrived at West Point Light Station at 11:30 a.m.

2. Keeper A. P. Anderson was absent. On inquiry as to the whereabouts of the keeper at the Army building at the approach to the light, the janitor informed me that the keeper had not been around for some time, believing him sick, the light being attended by some one unknown to him who departed immediately after lighting up. Ringing of fog bell brought no one to station.

3. The tower and watchhouse was locked. Entrance to watchhouse was gained by the window where keys were found for the tower and cellar of watchhouse. The station was found in general disorder, dirty and in a neglected condition. The paint on all buildings is weather worn, cracked, blistered and falling away from woodwork. The cellar was unsightly and on the floor was a recent fecal deposit.

4. In the tower the light was found burning and the lens left unprotected from the sun's rays, it now being one o'clock in the afternoon. The light was extinguished and the lantern curtains hung up.

5. The new keeper, S. J. Nolan, was instructed in the use of station equipment and instructed in his duties. Paragraphs in the "Instructions to Lighthouse Employees" were interpreted to the new keeper.

6. Letters regarding Keeper Anderson's dismissal from the service were left at the station to be delivered upon arrival of the keeper or his agent. Transfer of Lighthouse property to be effected in the presence of Mr. Anderson and Keeper A.J.Nolan who was instructed regarding same.

7. It is the intention of the new keeper to live in the watchhouse and thereby request a small cook stove to replace round heating stove.

8. An outboard motor "Neptune" was found in the base of the tower covered up with canvas. The motor and appendages were rusted. The new keeper was instructed to report serviceable condition of motor if the motor was lighthouse property. At present there is no boat at the station. The boat landing needs minor repairs, which the keeper will do after buildings are properly cleaned and painted.

Respectfully submitted,

D. J. LUCINSKI,
Asst. Lighthouse Engineer.
