My dear Mrs. Schultz:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of 16 February, 1948 requesting verification of information submitted by Mrs. Alice G. Schou, widow of Frank M. Schou, Keeper, former Lighthouse Service, now U. S. Coast Guard, Retired, who died on 12 August, 1947.

The records at Headquarters indicate that Mr. Schou entered the former Lighthouse Service on 3 May, 1921 and served continuously to 28 February, 1939 when he was retired. At the time of his death Mr. Schou was not receiving a pension, but was in receipt of retired pay. This retired pay ceased upon his death and there is no provision under the law for the continuance of payment of any part to his dependents.

The only payment made to Mrs. Schou upon the death of her husband, was the retired pay accrued for the period 1 to 12 August, 1947, in the amount of $23.99. There are no further sums due. Inasmuch as Mr. Schou's entire service was in the capacity of a civilian employee I know of no benefits available to his dependents.

By direction of the Commandant.

Very truly yours,
