16 February, 1940.

Honorable John Lesinski,
House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Lesinski:

I am in receipt of your communication, dated February 12, 1940, to which was attached "A Bill Granting a Pension to Howell P. Smith." In reply to your request for verification of service and medical history of Mr. Smith, you are advised that the records at Coast Guard Headquarters show that Howell P. Smith enlisted December 26, 1910, in the life saving service (now U. S. Coast Guard) at Isles of Shoals Station, Portsmouth, New Hampshire, in the rating of surfman, transferred November 2, 1911, to White Head Station and that he was discharged July 31, 1913, from White Head Station, Sprucehead, Maine. Reason for separation from the Service is given as follows:- Keeper instructed not to reenlist him August 1, 1913. Does not attend to patrol duties, will not study drills, is unruly and makes trouble for the keeper.

Howell P. Smith was employed in the former first lighthouse district at Breakwater Light Station, Rockland, Maine, from September 15, 1926, to August 20, 1927, when he was dismissed for inefficiency and inattention to duty.

There is no medical history of Smith on file at Coast Guard Headquarters.

Very sincerely yours,

L. C. COVELL
Rear Admiral, U. S. Coast Guard,
Acting Commandant.
