Subject : Additional Keeper, Lincoln Rock Lightstation.
References: Department letters March 17, 1922, and June 10, 1922.

1. Authority is requested for an additional position as keeper at Lincoln Rock Lightstation, Alaska, for the period June 6, 1922, to August 19,1922, inclusive, at the rate of $780 per annum, base pay. This additional position is rendered necessary by reason of the resignation of John A. 2. Mr. Ellery A. Teeter is now serving under appointment as assistant keeper at Lincoln Rock Lightstation he having been demoted to $780 per annum from $960 per annum on June 6, 1922, and his salary having been increased to $840 per annum on June 26, 1922, to cover longevity pay.

Request for authorization of this position should have been submitted in connection with nomination of April 27, 1922, for demotion of Mr. Teeter and my letter of same date relating to transfer of Mr. Louis Pace, and the discontinuance of the additional position at $720 per annum held by him, but at the time the fact was overlooked that Mr. Copeland would remain on the pay roll as assistant keeper until August 19, 1922.
