Dear Sir

The Expressman who handled your things when you left here have informed me several times that you have not yet paid him

Kindly take a fools advise, sooner than having a letter go through the Light House Office and then through your superior to you and causing you all that disgrace, pay him. Hoping you and all yours are O. K. I am

W. H. Rhodes.
Superintendent of Lighthouse,
18th district San Francisco

Dear Sir:

A few days ago I received the enclosed letter from Oscar Yeulin, keeper at Roe Island Light Station. Such A letter I think, was uncalled for as I had tried before leaving Bay Point to see the Expressman, but found that he was out of Town. I left word with several of the Business people to tell him to send his account to me at Los Angeles, no word came from him so I wrote twice asking how much I owed him. I finally wrote to our Groceryman asking him to try and see the Man and give him our Address, so as he could mail his account to me.

This he did and I sent him a check by Return Mail which shows, I think, that I did my best to do the right thing by him. I have worked for the Government in various ways for a number of years. I have four discharges and they are all Excellant. It would not pay me at this late date to do anything to mar my good record. of course I know, that Yenklin has no use for an ex-serviceman, and would not, if he could, say a good word for one. I am sending this explanation incase your attention may have been called to the matter.

Yours Respectfully,
Jonas White
