1. There is enclosed a letter addressed to Robert Wilson, Assistant Keeper, Roe Island Light Station, dated October 4th, charging him with keeping a considerable supply of intoxicating liquor in his quarters at the Roe Island Light Station and suspending him from duty commencing October 4th. There is enclosed copy of Wilson's reply dated October 4th, 1929.

2. Under orders of the Superintendent, a representative of this office arrived unexpectedly at Roe Island Light Station on October 3rd and found a five-gallon keg containing about three gallons of whiskey, and two or three empty kegs stored in a locked closet in Assistant Wilson's quarters. Representative also found a partially filled bottle of whiskey and a jar of wine in Wilson's kitchen.

3. The Keeper of Roe Island Light Station has heretofore reported that Wilson has threatened him with bodily harm on several occasions.

4. After thorough investigation of the case the Superintendent recommends that Wilson be discharged from the Service for having intoxicating liquor in his quarters, this discharge to become effective at the close of October 3rd.

Memorandum for Mr. Libbey

The attached recommendation of the Bureau of Lighthouses for the dismissal of Robert Wilson, keeper at $1380 per annum at Roe Island Light Station, effective at the close of October 3, 1929, is made by reason of the fact that a considerable supply of intoxicating liquor was found in his quarters upon inspection of the station by a representative of the service on October 3. Article 489 of the Regulations for the Lighthouse Service prohibits the introduction of alcholic liquors or other intoxicants on board any lighthouse vessel or within a lighthouse reservation. In reply to the charges preferred against him, Keeper Wilson states that the liquor was left in his quarters by friends who visited the station in their own launch and that he has no excuse to offer for allowing the liquor to be landed.

The charges are considered sufficient to warrant the action recommended by the Bureau.
