William Cooke & John Ousley both of full age Jestify and Say that on Monday last about Eleven a Clock Mr George Worthylake & his Wife & Daughter Came on board the Sloop lying in the Narrows Whereof James Nicholls is Master (who was not then on board) at the Desire of Mr John Edgr a Passenger & after they had Arrivd on board about an hour the Jd Worthylake his Wife & Daughter together with the Jd Edgr went away in the Boat in order to go to the Lighthouse Island and further the Depont Saith not But they Eat & Drank very friendly on board the Sloop not to Excess

Wm M Cooke

Boston Nove 6th 1718

John Woosley

Sworn & Sworn before ye Jury & Saml Sewall Coroner

William Cooke & John Woosley both of full age testify and say that on Monday last about eleven a Clock Mr. George Worthy-lake & his wife & daughter came on board the sloop lying in the Narrows whereof James Nichols is Master (who was not then on board) at the Depre of Mrs. John Edge a passenger, & after they had tarried on board about an hour the Go. Worthylake his wife & daughter together with the said Edge went away in the boat in order to go to the lighthouse island and further the Depon't saith not but they eat & drank very friendly on board tho not to excess.

Sign
Wm. M Cooke

John Woosley

Boston Nov^{e} 6th 1718

Signed & sworn before ye jury & Sam'l Tyler Coroner
Tyley(?)